

International Workshop

Philosophy's Contribution to the Study of Religion

University of Bern, June 13, 2022
Institute for the Science of Religion

Program

PART I: Paradigms in the Study of Religion

9:00 – 9:40: Jeppe Sinding Jensen, University of Aarhus

How Institutions Work

9:40 – 10:20: Andrea Rota, University of Bern

Religion, Media, and Collective Intentionality

Coffee Break

10:40 – 11:20: Jens Schlieter, University of Bern

Signs of Absence and the Semiotic Affordance of Religion

11:20 – 12:00: Kevin Schilbrack, Appalachian State University

Liturgical Groups, Religion, and Social Ontology

12:00 – 12:40: Robert Yelle, University of Munich

Hobbes the Egyptian

LUNCH BREAK

PART II: Work in Progress

14:00-14:45: Kevin Schilbrack, Appalachian State University

The Promise of “Expansive” Naturalism

14:45-15:30: Robert Yelle, University of Munich

How to Stabilize the Category of Religion?

15:30-16:15: Jens Schlieter, University of Bern

How to Conceptualize “Religious Experience” in the Study of Religion?

Coffee break

16:45-17:30: Andrea Rota, University of Bern

Religion and Psychedelics in the Cognitive Blender

17:30-18:15: Jeppe Sinding Jensen, University of Aarhus

Normative Cognition

University of Bern, Lerchenweg 36, 3012 Bern

Information and Registration: andrea.rota@relwi.unibe.ch